Detectives Have What They Re gard as Strong Evidence Against Accused Man.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BLUEFIELD. W. VA., October I.—
Felts, brother of J. T. Felts, of the Baldwin-Feits Detective Agency, returned to-day from Hurley, W. Va., the scene of the massacre of Aunt Betity Justis and the Meadows family, and he thinks that beyond any question of doubt he has collected sufficient circumstantal evidence to hold Howard Little, who was arrested six days ago at Bull Creek, McDowell county, W.
Va., on suspicion. Little was brought to this city and given a sweating at the headquarters of the detective agency. He was later taken to Welch and confined in Jail for further developments.

Mr. Feits and Alex, Hufford, of Welch, confined in Jall for further developments.

Mr. Feits and Alex, Hufford, of Welch, another Baldwin-Feits man, have spent several days on the ground, and they conclude that the evidence regarding Little's guilt is almost conclusive, guid they believe, moreover, that he committed the crime single-haused. A few days before the tragedy Little borrowed a Smith-& Wesson revolver from a neighbor. Felts and Hufford had the body of Meadows, in addition to having his skull crushed with an axe, had been shot twice. A couple of doctors were engaged, and the bullets were located. Both had entered the abdomen. One deflected by the outer lining of the stomach, had split and penetrated four inches into the hip bone, and the other had lodged in the spinal column. They were 23-callbre Winchester bullets,*the callbre of the gun borrowed by Little, and together weighed but three grains less than the regulation weight, which diminution is accounted for by the friction in entering the bones.

Another fact in the evidence which the detectives cite is that Little was preparing to leave for the West.

Little's sworm statement was taken at Welch to-day, and it contradicted diametrically several statements which he made at the sweating here six days ago. He will be taken to Grandy, Va., the county seat of Buchanan county, and held for tylal.

ture George W. Kolner, that the farmors of Ylighina use great care in given grouplete information to the takers of the forthcoming national census. Too many farmers, in Mr. Koiner's opinion, are prone to make guesses in these matters and to overlook many important points, with the result that the State does not get full justice in the enumeration and publication of the statistics of her agricultural wealth and importance.

The agricultural schedule is still incomplete, but Census Director Durani has indicated in a general way what the questions will be. The director and the Commissioner of Agricultura ask the farmers of the State to carefully study the following synopsis, and to prepare, as other States are doing, systematically, to have a complete enumeration of their belongings and of the natural wealth of the lands of the Commonwealth.

Publication of the schedules in complete form will be widespread, will be consuited by all seeking information on the subject, and will stand in the main for ten years.

Director Durand's synopsis is as follows:

"If the farm changes owners or tenants between the crop year, 1909, and the date of enumeration, April 15, 1910, it is required that the occupants of the farm 1910 shall secure the above information relating to the farm for the preceding year, 1909. The owner or tenant this year shall leave his book record with his successor."

Walker, of Richmond, is its statutory agent.

The company is nearly the oldest of all five insurance concerns. It was or ganked in 170. The London Assurance began business in the same year, but both are autedated by the Sun Intional Company in the same year, and the farm for the preceding year, 1909. The owner panies are now doing business in this State. The Royal Exchange has a capital of f1,500,000, or about $7,500,000.
